

DVDs

The world's least intimidating police lineup.

Weeds: Season Three

Mary-Louise Parker, Elizabeth Perkins
(Lions Gate)

The exploits of suburban mom and pot dealer Nancy Botwin (Parker) get more outrageous in the third season, with son Shane (Alexander Gould) in summer school and older son Silas (Hunter Parrish) dating an evangelical pothead (a lackluster Mary-Kate Olsen). Fifteen episodes on three discs. ★★★★★

Vince Vaughn's Wild West Comedy Show

Vince Vaughn, Ahmed Ahmed
(New Line Home Video)

Vince and a quartet of comedians traveled the U.S. with their comedy show, resulting in this documentary. Low on actual laughs, this road-trip film feels more like a vanity project than anything else. ★★★☆☆

Rescue Me: The Complete Fourth Season

Denis Leary, Steven Pasquale (Sony)

Firefighter Tommy Gavin (Leary) has more challenges to deal with in season four: the baby that may be his (or his late brother's); his rebellious daughter (Natalie Distler); and the aftermath of last season's tragedy. Susan Sarandon guest stars. Thirteen episodes on four discs. ★★★★★

The Andromeda Strain

Benjamin Bratt, Eric McCormack
(Universal Studios)
This A&E miniseries

based on Michael Crichton's best-selling novel centers on a mysterious virus brought to Earth via satellite. The two-disc set includes all four televised hours, plus bonus materials. ★★★★★

"Do pool boys actually clean pools anymore?"

MUSIC

Weezer

Weezer
(DGC/Interscope)

The so-called Red Album is Weezer's sixth studio effort and features fun tracks like "Pork and Beans." The deluxe edition has four bonus songs.

Jesse McCartney

Departure
(Hollywood Records)

Teeny-bopper dreamboat McCartney flavors his latest pop album with R&B for a more mature sound.

The Rosewood Thieves

Rise & Shine

These Grey's Anatomy darlings have struck a retro chord with their indie-rock debut. Check out "Heavy Eyes" and "Junkyard Julie."

Julianne Hough

Julianne Hough
(Mercury Nashville)

Dancing With the Stars pro Julianne makes a curious career move into country music. Don't rush out for this disc.

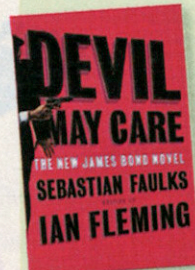

BOOKS

Such a Pretty Fat

Jen Lancaster
(NAL Trade)
The third memoir from Lancaster has her pondering weighty issues. As she nears 40, Jen decides to slim down. She chronicles what ensues with her unique humor.

Devil May Care

Sebastian Faulks
(Doubleday)
The James Bond series gets another addition with Faulks' installment, which picks up where Ian Fleming left off in 1966. This exciting read makes a great gift for dad.

Whacked

Jules Asner
(Weinstein Books)
As a TV personality, former supermodel and wife of director Steven Soderbergh, Asner is more than qualified to write chick lit set in Hollywood!

Married to Me

Dayanara Torres and Jeannette Torres-Alvarez (Celebra)
Marc Anthony left wife

Dayanara for J.Lo, but don't feel bad for the Puerto Rican beauty; she and her sister share uplifting tips for overcoming divorce.